

Sub-consultants Registration of Interest

In preparation for up and coming work we are seeking expressions of interest from a range of suitably qualified and experienced sub-consultants to register for project opportunities.

If you have experience listed below, register your interest with us.

- Ecology Consultants, with a high level of knowledge in:
  - Undertaking ecological survey in the vegetation communities of NSW
  - The application of NSW biodiversity planning framework
  - The relevant NSW and Commonwealth environmental legislation and planning policies

- Approvals Consultants, with a high level of knowledge in:
  - The preparation of reviews of environmental factors (REFs), other impact assessments, and related approval documentation
  - Preparing and managing environmental management plans, including compliance, auditing and reporting
  - The relevant NSW and Commonwealth environmental legislation and planning policies

- Heritage Architects, with a high level of knowledge in:
  - The application of the Heritage Act 1977 and relevant guidelines
  - The preparation of Heritage Impact Statements (HIS) also known as Statement of Heritage Impact (SOHIs)
  - The preparation of Conservation Management Plans (CMP)
  - The preparation of Archival Photographic Recordings

You will already be set up as a trading entity or small business, preferably with your own workers compensation insurance and other usual insurances.

We'll need to meet you, review your credentials, discuss your suitable experience and assess your trading structure as appropriate.

This is an expression of interest for registration as an approved sub-consultant to Niche, there is no guarantee of work.

By registering your details, where deemed suitable and where Niche has an appropriate need you will be kept informed of all upcoming suitable sub-contract opportunities.

If you would like to be registered for future opportunities, please complete a Registration of Interest form and return by email to info@niche-eh.com
